

GUEST LECTURE/ FDP:

- On 23.09.2017, III MBA students attended the guest lecture by Mr. B. Raghava Reddy, Associate Professor of Geetanjali P.G. Studies, Nellore and Nodal Officer for SEBI, Nellore region. The program provides knowledge on securities market and benefits of early investment process. The resource person educated students to get membership in the boards AMFI and Securities market.

- A guest lecture arranged for MBA III semester students on 14/10/2017, by Mr. Mathew Thomas, Senior Manager, DBFS, Cochin on the topic of “FINANCIAL SERVICES”. The venue arranged for the guest lecture is at C-block, MBA Seminar Hall. He addressed the students regarding the importance of financial markets and services, the role of financial services in the country’s development. All the students interacted with the resource person as well got best knowledge from him. Principal, Head of the department and faculty members participated in the event.

- On behalf of Entrepreneurship Cell, Department of Management studies organized guest lecture on 17/10/2017. Resource Person Mr.Srinivasa Rao, General Manager, District Industrial Center, addressed MBA III semester students regarding Start-up Company's procedure, minimum investment required to start a company and availability of opportunities in different sectors. He particularly educated the students that the areas to start new ventures and how to get profits through different channels.

- Mr. K.Mahesh, Human Resources Manager, CP Aqua_Pvt. Ltd. addressed the MBA I year students on Company establishment and Human resource policies. Mr. K.Mahesh has extensive experience in the area of human resources and he worked with established companies. The resource person educated the students on aqua industry and the opportunities at Nellore district.

- Department of MBA organized a guest lecture on “Importance of Language Skills for MBA students” dated 21/10/2017 by Mr. Obuleswar Sharma, Soft skills Trainer.

