A REPORT ON EVOLVING GENDER EQUITY ON HIGHER EDUCATION 09-09-2017

A Program on Gender equity on higher education was held on 09/09/2017 at James Watt Seminar hall at 10am, resource person Mr.Ch.Mohan Rao NGO spoke on the occasion and enunciated the importance of Women's Education in society, he told that Women's education is a key to gender equity, justice and poverty reduction, as well as the socio-economic development of nations. Even Universities and IIT's have 30% reservation in all the jobs or seats in education.

While gender inequalities intensify with poverty, caste inequalities and geographical location (particularly in underdeveloped rural areas), particular gender-differentiated ideologies cut across all social groups, explaining why in all social groups, girls lag behind boys in access to and participation in education. These include specific views on the appropriate roles to be played by women in family and society, and the underlying controls placed on female mobility and chastity. These gender-specific ideologies are responsible for the continued wide gaps in female secondary schooling enrolment. Further, responsibilities for securing domestic water and fuel place tremendous time burdens on women, often shared with younger girls in the family who could otherwise be in school or at rest or play. Investments in water supply, sustainable energy and renewable sources of fuel all can have significant impact on female education.
