Report On Power System Deregulation

Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering Organized a Seminar on "Power System Deregulation" on 26-08-2016. The Resource Person to this Seminar session was Dr. K. Srinivas, Divisional Engineer, AP TRANSCO, Ongole, Andhra Pradesh.

The Seminar was commenced with the Inaugural Address by Prof. G. Srinivalsulu Reddy, Head of the Department who emphasized the objectives of this seminar and how Students would be benefited by these kinds of seminars.

Dr.K. Srinivas, the resource person in his enlightened Lecture focused on objectives of the deregulated power market. Deregulation improves the economic past of the production and the use of electricity. Due to the competition in the electric industry, the power prices are likely to come down which benefits the consumers. He then discussed, in depth about the basic concepts of the deregulation of power system, market power, organization models of power utility restructuring and spot price calculations

All the Faculty of Electrical and Electronics Engineering and a total 56 Students have participated in this Seminar and made the programme a grand success.

SUMMARY REPORT ON “APPLICATIONS OF SOFT COMPUTING TECHNIQUES IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING”

On “Applications of Soft Computing Techniques in Electrical Engineering” a Seminar was Organized by EEE Department at Edison Auditorium in B-Block, NECN on 27-02-2017. Prof. G. Srinivasulu Reddy, HOD, Dept. of EEE, welcomed the participants and gave introduction on the programme. Total of 119 Students have participated in this programme. This programme was co-ordinated by 3 Faculty members. Eminent resource person of the program was K.Chandra Sekhar, Manager Placements, Prolific Systems and Technologies Private Ltd, Hyderabad. He covered the following Topics:

- Soft Computing Techniques in Electrical Engineering
- Functional levels of Computing Techniques
- Evolution of Soft computing Techniques
- PLC/RTU Programming
- Applications of soft computing techniques

Before concluding, our Head of the Department expressed his sincere gratitude and appreciation to the Resource person Sri K. Chandra Sekhar.
