Report on Sri Subhakrithu Ugadi Sambaram

Date: 01.04.2022

Ugadi is the festival reserved to celebrate the commencement of the New Year. It is assumed that Lord Brahma, the creator of the world began His creation on this day. The first day of bright half of the lunar month Chaitra is considered to be the day for Ugadi celebration, which generally falls in the months of March – April of the English calendar. The festival of Ugadi also welcomes the spring season when nature seems to be immersed in the festive mood and new leaves and new buds along with fresh breeze of spring manifold the Ugadi spirit.

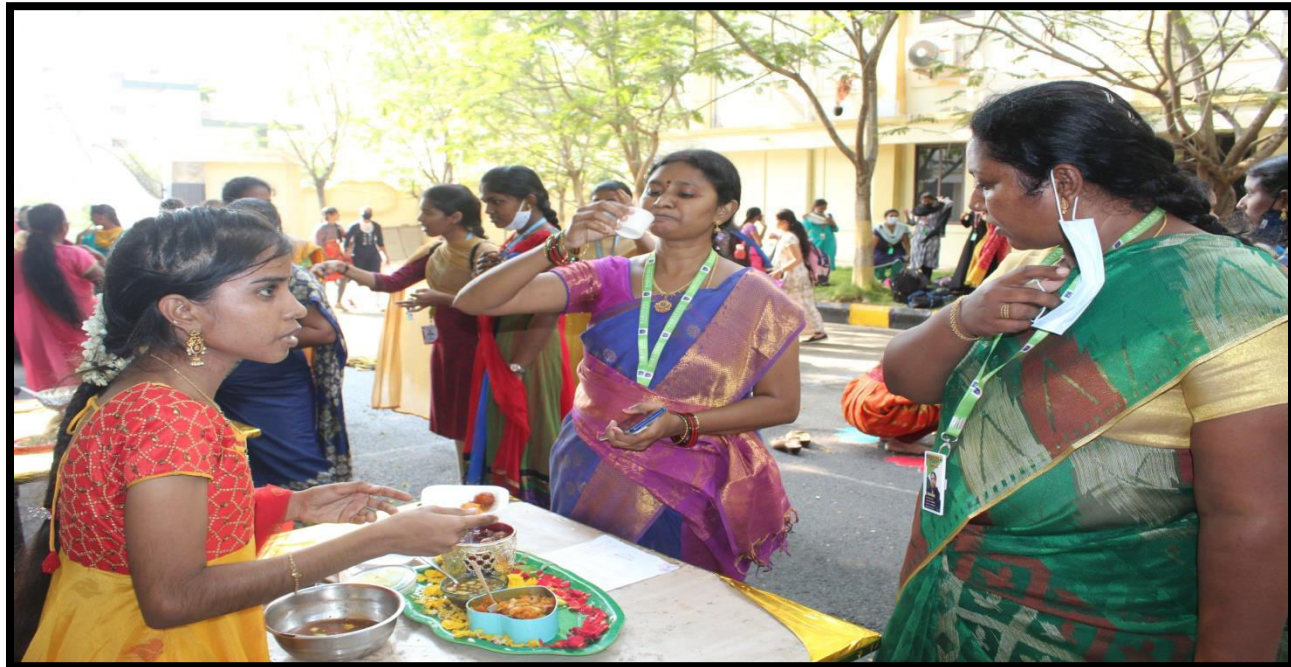

This imminent New Telugu Year ‘Ugadi’ was celebrated with traditional vehemence at Narayana Engineering College with great pomp and show.

Students took part in the celebration of the festival with great enthusiasm. They wore traditional dresses and spoke about the importance of the festival and the customary ‘Ugadi Pachchadi’, an amalgamation of six different tastes representing different components of life. As a part of the celebration our students prepared tasty Ugadi pachchadi and some sweets. The celebration focused on the different shades of the life and the warm start of the celebration spread the festival vibes in the atmosphere. Extending the festival greetings The Management wished Happy Ugadi to all.

Hobby Clubs-NECN conducted Rangoli, making of Ugadi pachchadi and sweets, decoration competitions in a traditional ambiance. The students enthusiastically participated in these events and there was a lively and electrifying atmosphere in the campus. The director, Principal, Dean, HOD’s of all departments and other faculty members have participated in the judgment of the competitions. All the students and faculty wore the traditional dresses to continue our culture on the eve of Ugadi festival. The active participation of students and faculty in this splendid gala resonated throughout the day.
