In 2013, after a span of 16 years, India finally enacted the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act') for prevention of sexual harassment against women at the workplaces. The Central Government vide notification SO 3606 (E) appointed 9 December 2013 as the date on which the provisions of the Act came into force and on the same day, the Central Government made the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Rules, 2013 ("Rules")

It is an act to provide protection against sexual harassment of women at workplace and for the prevention and Redressal of complaints/grievances of sexual harassment and for matters connected therewith or incident there to.

"Sexual Harassment" includes such unwelcome sexually determined behavior (whether directly or by implication) as:

- (i) Physical contacts and advances;

- (ii) a demand or request for sexual favors;
- (iii) Sexually colored remarks;
- (iv) Showing pornography;
- (v) Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature

"Sexual Harassment" shall include, but will not be confined to the following:

- When submission to unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature are made, either explicitly or implicitly, as a term or condition for instruction, employment, participation or evaluation of a person's engagement in any college activity.
- When unwelcome sexual advances and verbal, non-verbal or physical conduct such as loaded comments, remarks or jokes, letters, phone calls or e-mails, gestures, showing of pornography, lurid stares, physical contact or molestation, stalking, sounds or display of a derogatory nature have the purpose or the effect of interfering with an individual's performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive college environment
- Where any form of sexual assault is committed where a person uses the body or any part of it or any object as an extension of the body in relation to another person without the latter's consent or against that person's will, and when any such conduct as defined in (i) and (ii) above is committed by a third party or outsider in relation to a member of the college community or vice-versa.

Objective of the Women's Grievance Redressal Cell:

- i. To prevent sexual harassment and to promote the general well being of female students, teaching and non teaching women staff of the college.
- ii. To provide appropriate working conditions in respect of work, leisure, health and hygiene to further ensure that there is no hostile environment towards women at work places and that no women employee has reasonable grounds to believe that she is disadvantaged in connection with her employment.
- iii. To provide guidelines for the redressal of grievances related to sexual harassment of female students, teaching and non teaching women staff of the college.

Grievance Procedure:

- Any women employee or female student will have the right to lodge a complaint concerning sexual harassment against a male student or the employee of the institute by writing a letter or putting the complaint in the Principal's office
- To complaint will be afforded full confidentiality at this stage
- After receiving the complaint, the secretary shall convene the meeting of the cell
- The principal will appoint investigation committee on recommendations of the secretary

- The investigation committee shall then decide the course of action to proceed
- The complaint will stand dropped if in accordance to the committee the complainant/her representative does not able to disclose prima-facie an offence of sexual harassment by the accused
- In case the investigation committee decides to proceed with the complaint, the wishes of the complainant to be ascertained and if the complainant wishes that a warning will suffice then alleged offender/accused can be called to the meeting of the committee, to be heard and if satisfied that a warning is just and proper, he can be warned about his behavior and to obtain non recurrence of such a similar acts against women. In case the complaint requests that the complaint should be proceeded further without just a warning, the same may be proceeded with in the manner prescribed hereafter.

Procedure for investigation:

If the complainant wishes to proceed beyond a mere a warning to the accused, the accused shall be given in writing by the investigation committee an opportunity to explain within one week in writing as to why action should not be taken against him, for good and sufficient reasons, against act of sexual harassment on his part.

If the written explanation of the accused is not found to be satisfactory of if he does not provide any written explanation, the investigation committee can decide whether the offence deserve a minor penalty/punishment or a major penalty/punishment.

In the event that the investigation committee comes to a conclusion that the guilt of the accused is probe, a major penalty/punishment can be recommended. If the accused is an employee, he may be placed under suspension under the provisions of act/rules and regulations of the institution.

If a person is charged with physical molestation or rape in the college/society's premises, he shall be immediately placed under suspension pending investigation and enquiry. Appropriate actions can be initiated for handling over to law enforcement authorities for taking suitable action as per Indian penal code. Depending upon the gravity of offence, committee can recommend action to the college authorities to initiate action as per prevalent college rules and regulations.

Punishment for sexual harassment:

Any member of the institute fraternity (student /employee/outsider related to institute) found guilty of sexual harassment shall be liable to be punished. This shall be subject to the same penalties for major or minor misconduct as prescribed under government /college rule and regulations.
