The department of Electronics and Communication Engineering has conducted Technical Tambola on behalf of "AKHYANA" (students association) on 13.05.2022 for all the ECE students.

Tambola is the Italian version of the Bingo. However, unlike the American version where you can make Bingo horizontally, vertically and diagonally, in Tambola, only horizontally counts.

Format- The tickets were provided to the participants with answers and numbers on the tickets and the questions were displayed randomly on the screen. The caller reads out the numbers that are randomly drawn to the audience. The participants crossed the correct answers if the answers were present in their ticket. In this event we conducted a total of two rounds, which saw 44 participants across both rounds. Students took active participate in this event.
